“POLITICALLY SPEAKING” WITH THE HONORABLE ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON, CONGRESSWOMAN FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Washington DC — On November 4, voters will go to the polls to vote for the next President of the United States of America. To some politics has become a “dirty word”; for others it means the start of diplomacy. In the political arena, the challenges are turning “win-lose” into “win-win”. The communication process starts with understanding, and recognizing uniqueness. The Honorable Eleanor Holmes Norton will discuss how principles in politics can be applied in everyday life or in business.

Eleanor Holmes Norton is now in her ninth term as the Congresswoman for the District of Columbia. Norton's work for full congressional voting representation and for full democracy for the people of the District of Columbia continues her lifelong struggle for universal human rights. Congresswoman Norton, who taught full time before being elected, continues as a tenured professor of law at Georgetown University, teaching a course there every year.
